

The Final Stages

Once registered and a place offered, a deposit is required upon acceptance and is a legally binding contract which commits you to the school. If deposits are paid at more than one school you will be committed to paying the first term's fees at those schools, regardless of whether your child eventually attends.

Please do not assume that one may be able to flout this rigidly enforced system, those who have attempted to do so have found that it is to their detriment and cost.

Likewise ONE TERM'S clear notice of your intention to withdraw is strictly enforced, or the next term's fees are liable.